Caldwell: A Complete Streets Town
Borough adopts Complete Streets policy, with help from NJAIM

The Borough of Caldwell recently adopted a Complete Streets resolution. Lead Ambassador in Motion Jerry Fried and current Caldwell Mayor Ann Dassing were instrumental in the adoption of the resolution, which also had support from Environmental Commission Chair Ann Marchioni. COMPLETE STREETS IN PASSAIC COUNTY

County adopts resolution to create a safe network for all users

Passaic County Freeholders voted to adopt a Complete Streets resolution to "designate and operate a comprehensive, integrated, connected multi-modal network of transportation options." Until now, Passaic County was one of only two New Jersey counties without a Complete Streets policy of any kind. For a copy of the County's resolution, click here.

NEW TOOLS FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

As technology advances, so does our ability to interact with the public

After a brutal winter for New Jersey roads, new tools for bicyclists and pedestrians, two typically under-represented groups, are allowing their voices to be heard now more than ever. While these new technologies present unique opportunities, the most successful outreach campaigns will also utilize "boots-on-the-ground" methods. For more information on both the new and the tried and true, please click here.
