Recycle your bicycle

Have you ever found yourself in a garage that looks more like a bicycle graveyard?

Whether you have outgrown a bicycle, switched styles or upgraded, it’s not uncommon to find yourself with a couple bicycles hanging around in the basement. Rather than holding onto them, donating is a great way to clear out your space, recycle, help someone in need of a bike and get involved in your local community.

Many bicycle donation centers repair and refurbish bikes to be resold at a low-cost to local residents. There are a number of organizations in New Jersey that you can help out by donating a bike, hosting a bike drive, or volunteering!

Please click here for a list of donation centers and more.

Progress Report: Borough of Bay Head Bicycle and Pedestrian Master Plan

A look at how Bay Head is becoming better for pedestrians and bicyclists

Things are moving along for bicyclists and pedestrians in the Borough of Bay Head, New Jersey.

In December of 2015, the Ocean County municipality and popular shore destination adopted a Bicycle and Pedestrian Master Plan under the guidance of Complete Streets visioning. Seven months later, in July of 2016, Bay Head Momentum, a local non-profit interested in promoting "health and wellness of the residents and guests of the community” released a progress report on the implementation of the plan.

Big change on Hudson roadway after jump in fatalities
November 17, 2016 - NJ.com

"Motorists and pedestrians are starting to see a big change on Kennedy Boulevard. Hudson County engineers have adjusted the timing on traffic lights on the county roadway in Jersey City, which officials say will reduce drivers' speed throughout many of the municipalities Kennedy Boulevard runs through."

The 'Peanutabout' concept could be a breakthrough for diagonal streets
December 1, 2016 - Streetsblog USA

"On Tuesday, the Boston Cyclists Union shared the inspiring back story behind a new concept for the long, complex seven-way intersection created by the acute crossing of Cambridge and Hampshire streets. Whether or not the 'peanutabout' turns out to be right for this particular intersection, diagonal streets are common in U.S. cities. This looks like a tool that deserves to be on the country's belt."
Jersey City residents honor fatal crash victims on World Day of Remembrance
November 20, 2016 - NJ.com

"Dozens of people gathered at the intersection near Kennedy Boulevard and Neptune Avenue in remembrance of those killed in road crashes this past year. World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims is observed on the third Sunday of November each year."
