Dear Readers,
Welcome to this issue of the NJ Walks and Bikes Newsletter, a bi-weekly service prepared by the New Jersey Bicycle and Pedestrian Resource Center (NJBPRC). If you would like to learn more about NJBPRC, please visit us here.

All In-Person Meetings CANCELED
The BPAC Meeting scheduled for Tuesday, March 17, 2020 has been canceled
This includes all subcommittee meetings.

Introducing the Traffic Peanut
Most people have heard of or seen a traffic circle or roundabout before, but it might be fair to say that you haven’t heard of a traffic peanut. It is one of the latest traffic calming devices to hit the road.

Equity in Bicycle Advocacy
Bicycle advocates have long championed the mentality of “build it and they will come,” but in communities of color and lower income communities, the issue is a lot more complicated.
West Orange Council Addresses Pedestrian Safety

Newark Council OK’s Transit Village Proposal for ‘Four Corners’

First Staten Islander Bikes Across Goethals Bridge as Shared-Use Path Opens

Click Here for More News

Complete Streets in New Jersey

An up-to-date list of Complete Streets policies in New Jersey

There are currently 167 municipalities and 8 counties with Complete Streets policies in New Jersey.

This brings the total New Jersey population living in municipalities with Complete Streets policies to over 4 million people, or 46% of the population.

To access the most up-to-date list of Complete Streets policies adopted in the state, click the button!

Click Here for the Complete List of Policies