Dear Readers,
Welcome to this issue of the NJ Walks and Bikes Newsletter, a bi-weekly service prepared by the New Jersey Bicycle and Pedestrian Resource Center (NJBPRC). If you would like to learn more about NJBPRC, please visit us here.

5 Bicycle and Pedestrian Books to Read During Quarantine

A collection of five books on the merits, and planning and implementation of bicycling and walking infrastructure based on the experiences of Cities across the world.

Read More Here
A vicious cycle: Bike sales soar, causing shortages and "panic buying"

Cycling appears to have become the outdoors activity of choice for many Americans amid nationwide shutdowns from the coronavirus pandemic, as evidenced by the surge in bike sales in recent months.

NJ Bike/Ped News Feed
May 9, 2020 – May 22, 2020

- Town Square: Want a walkable, bikeable Montclair? There's a plan for that
- Boston is planning to repurpose streets for pedestrians during the coronavirus outbreak
- Bikers and pedestrians look to City to add more open space for safe travel

Click Here for More News

Complete Streets in New Jersey

An up-to-date list of Complete Streets policies in New Jersey

There are currently 168 municipalities and 8 counties with Complete Streets policies in New Jersey.

This brings the total New...
Jersey population living in municipalities with Complete Streets policies to over 4 million people, or 46% of the population.

To access the most up-to-date list of Complete Streets policies adopted in the state, click the button!